Dear Sir:

I have to thank you for your kind thought of me in sending me a copy of your lines of poetry on the late Chancellor Blake. I have read them with much interest, and I may assure you that I appreciate as you do the immense services that were rendered by the late Edward Blake not only to this country but to the Empire and in particular to the University of Toronto. We shall always look back to him as one of our benefactors.

Yours sincerely,

President.
